

PREAMBLE

The University of Delhi has established the Department of Distance and Continuing Education (DDCE); Faculty of Open Learning (FOL); and Open Learning Development Centre (OLDC) under the aegis of the Campus of Open Learning/School of Open Learning (COL/SOL), University of Delhi. Institute started its journey in 1962 with 900 students (UG and PG) and has grown to a vast family of five lakh (approximately) students on the roll in the academic session 2021-22 with its presence in all four corners of Delhi as regional centres, namely, North Delhi – within Main Campus; South Delhi at Moti Bagh; West Delhi at Keshav Puram; and East Delhi at Tahipur (Opening soon).

Further to accelerate its growth momentum, this year onward institute is venturing into new professional areas both at UG and PG level by launching six programmes, namely- Master of Business Administration (MBA); Master of Library and Information Sciences (MLISc); Bachelor of Library and Information Sciences (BLISc); Bachelor of Management Studies (BMS); Bachelor of Business Administration (Financial Investment Analysis) (BBA FIA); and Bachelor of Arts (Hons.) Economics under the Department/School.

The admission in the MBA programme will be based on the final merit drawn on the basis of the sum of undergraduate scores with a weightage of 80% and working experience with a weightage of 20%, as detailed in the eligibility criteria in this Prospectus. The admission process and examination for the MBA programme in the Department will be governed as per the rule of the University of Delhi. The University of Delhi confers the degree to the students of the Department as it does in the case of its other constituent colleges.

The institute provides a golden opportunity to those working professionals interested to go for MBA along with their jobs. Students will also be given the opportunity to connect with industry experts through various industry engagement lectures and workshops. The mode of instruction is primarily through well-structured course materials available in both hard and soft copy which are provided at the time of admission to all the students. This is also supplemented with an E-library facility, video lectures, and Academic Counselling Sessions conducted for the benefit of students at various Learning Support Centers run by the Institute.

This Prospectus contains all required information for the admission in the MBA programme offered by the DDCE, COL/SOL, University of Delhi. However, any further specific query (not available in the Prospectus) may be obtained from the DDCE, COL/SOL.
