

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The University of Delhi laid its foundation in management programme through the Faculty of Management Studies in 1954, which is one of the oldest B-schools in the country. In 1973, the Department of Business Economics introduced a master programme in business economics known as Master in Business Economics (MBE) followed by Master of Finance and Control (MFC) programme in 1987 in the Department of Financial Studies.

The University of Delhi has established the Department of Distance and Continuing Education (DDCE); Faculty of Open Learning; and Open Learning Development Centre under the aegis of Campus of Open Learning (COL) /School of Open Learning (SOL), University of Delhi. DDCE is continuously striving to build an inclusive knowledge-based society through distance education. It is focused to make high-quality academic programmes available to the mass through ODL mode.

From the current Academic Session 2022-23, DDCE is offering undergraduate and postgraduate programmes in management education in Open & Distance Learning (ODL) mode. The two undergraduate management programmes are Bachelor of Management Studies (BMS) and Bachelor of Business Administration (Financial Investment Analysis) (BBA(FIA)) and Master of Business Administration (MBA) as a postgraduate programme.

The department follows a multimedia approach in delivering its programmes. It has included self-learning printed materials, supporting audio-video programmes, face to face interaction with students and academic counsellors. It facilitates the working professionals in acquiring management abilities and skills which will transform them into a leader in the business environment. The programmes of the department are designed in a modular format for providing maximum flexibility to the learners.

The programmes offered by the DDCE bridge the gap between education and the corporate world.
